

Stott-Wallace Missionary Offering is an offering received during the Pentecost season or at any appropriate time in the church year.

It is an ongoing offering that receives contributions through the year to support Cumberland Presbyterian missionaries that are under the supervision of the Missions Ministry Team. All tax-deductible contributions are used ONLY to provide salaries and benefits to our Cumberland Presbyterian missionaries. No administrative costs are taken from Stott-Wallace Missionary Offering donations.

The Cumberland Presbyterian (CP) Church has missionaries in various countries around the world. All our missionaries are church planters. They are growing the Kingdom of God and the Cumberland Presbyterian global family. We have missionaries serving in Brazil, Cambodia, Colombia, Guatemala, Philippines, Southeast Asia, and Spain. In addition to planting churches our missionaries provide invaluable leadership in these different countries. They help the CP presbyteries and councils of churches in those different countries. They also assist with the different community outreach projects, such as feeding programs for the poor, helping single mothers, a medical clinic, and educational programs for children. One important role of our missionaries is leadership development, both for national pastors and lay church leaders. Our missionaries spend a great deal of time forming future church leaders on the mission field.

The Stott-Wallace Missionary Offering pays all of these missionaries their salaries and benefits. This allows our missionaries the freedom to preach, serve, administer, evangelize, disciple, and help others. Our missionaries do not worry about raising support. When our missionaries are deployed, they are deployed with an agreed upon salary and benefits. As long as they are on the mission field as CP missionaries, their salary and benefits are assured. This offering allows us a way to provide a stable salary and benefits and remove the stress of fund-raising from our missionaries.

We urge our churches to pray for our missionaries. We encourage our churches to be informed about our missionaries and mission work. The Missions Ministry Team provides a missions magazine, The Missionary Messenger, free of charge to anyone who asks to receive it. We ask our churches to promote the Stott-Wallace offering. Currently it takes between $275,000 to $300,000 annually to cover the salary/benefit expenses of our missionaries. If all CP Churches would promote this offering and sacrificially give, these amounts are realistic. We realize our churches are all challenged to give to good things, even to missionaries outside the CP Church. However, keep in mind, the only source of income to support CP missionaries is the CP Church.

In addition to churches giving to our missionaries, they have also been blessed by donations from individuals. We are amazed at the sacrificially giving of Cumberland Presbyterians for missions. In fact, most years we have achieved our giving goals as the result of a generous gift from an individual for the Stott-Wallace Offering. We realize people find themselves in times of prosperity in their life and they are looking for a good cause to support. We suggest you consider giving to our CP missionaries.

in heaven and on earth has been given to me.
Therefore go and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, and teaching them to obey everything I have commanded you. And surely I am with you always, to the very end of the age." (Matthew 28:18-20)*

Stott-Wallace MISSIONARY OFFERING

The Support Offering for Cumberland Presbyterian Missionaries

The offering is named for two lifelong missionary families – Buddy and Beverly Stott (Japan) and Boyce and Beth Wallace (Colombia). The Stotts served as Cumberland Presbyterian missionaries for 26 years and the Wallaces served as missionaries for over 50 years. These two couples represent a long legacy of Cumberland Presbyterian missionary service. Pentecost season is a great opportunity to promote this offering. We encourage churches, women's ministry groups, youth groups, Sunday school classes and even individuals to give to this missionary offering.
