

Responsive Reading based on Leviticus 23:22 (ESV)
By Rev. Kristi Lounsbury

Leader: God has said, “I am the Lord your God.”

People: We want to worship and honor you, O God.

Leader: God has said, “Plant a plentiful harvest, but don’t take it all.”

People: We will reap only what you tell us to reap.

Leader: God has said, “Leave the edges of the fields alone.”

People: We will reserve the fringes of the sowed for others.

Leader: God has said, “Gather only the stalks.”

People: We will leave the grains for gleaning.

Leader: God has said, “Take care of the poor and the sojourner.”

People: We will be in relationship with one another.

ALL: For you are the Lord our God.
