

CUMBERLAND PRESBYTERIAN MINISTRY OF LEGACY

This Legacy is established in recognition of the faithful and passionate ministries of Samuel McAdow, Finis Ewing, Samuel King, and Louisa Woosley. These ministers created a legacy of ministry that countless Cumberland Presbyterian ministers have continued down through the years. By participating in this Legacy, ministers become co-laborers in building up the kingdom of God both now and in the future.

The Legacy of Ordination recognition is bestowed upon a new ordinand by a presbytery or person with a gift of $100 to the Legacy. With the recognition, a minister will receive a certificate suitable for framing and a pastoral cross with cord. A minister who is already ordained can participate in this Legacy with a $100 donation in recognition of their own ordination and will receive the certificate and pastoral cross.

The Legacy of Retirement recognition is bestowed upon a minister at their retirement with a gift of $100 to the Legacy by a presbytery, church, or person. With the recognition comes a certificate suitable for framing and a commendation.

The Legacy of Ordination Anniversary is an opportunity for ministers and those who support them in their ministry to celebrate special occasions like an ordination anniversary, Pastor Appreciation Sunday, a church installation anniversary, or birthday. Donations are made depending upon the years ordained. If the donation is $100 or more, the honoree will receive a certificate and the pastoral cross pendant. For all other donation amounts the honoree will be notified of donations made in their honor to the Legacy. All donors will receive a letter of thanks for continuing the Cumberland Presbyterian Legacy of Ministry.

Interest earnings will be used to support new or ongoing initiatives for ordained clergy and probationers outside the general budget such as scholarships or speakers' fees for continuing education, resource development, new technology, etc.
